Notice of results: December 4, 2026 (Fri)

4. SELECTION PROCESS

Selection is made through document screening.

*Applicants from countries where the Japanese language proficiency test is not administered will be required to attend an interview. Further details will be provided to applicants subject to the interview at a later date.

5. ELIGIBILITY

An applicant who satisfies one of the six following conditions is eligible to apply:

- (1) An applicant who has completed or is scheduled to complete a 12-year school education in a foreign country (*1).
- (2) An applicant who was educated abroad and has less than 12 years of education due to grade-skipping or other reasons.
- (3) An applicant who satisfies the requirements such as being deemed to have completed a designated course of not less than 11 years and has completed a course of a school corresponding to an upper secondary school (List of Courses of Foreign Schools Corresponding to Upper Secondary Schools Designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) in a foreign country.
<https://www.mext.go.jp/en/policy/education/highered/title02/detail02/sdetail02/1395423.html>
- (4) An applicant who has obtained Swiss International Baccalaureate, German Abitur, French Baccalaureate, or other equivalent qualifications.
- (5) An applicant who has completed 12 years of education at educational institutions accredited by international accrediting bodies, namely the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), the Council of International Schools (CIS), the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), and the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC).
- (6) If the 12-year school education includes the enrollment period in schools based on the Japanese education system, one of the following must apply.
  - For those who have completed or are scheduled to complete high school in a foreign country, the enrollment period in Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools (*2) must be six years or less.
  - For those who have completed or are scheduled to complete the relevant high school courses stipulated in the School Education Act of Japan, the enrollment period in Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools (*2) must be three years or less.

In addition, in cases where there is no accreditation by accrediting bodies mentioned in (5) as above, eligibility for admission may be determined through an individual eligibility assessment.

- *1 School education in a foreign country includes schools in the “List of Schools for Non-Japanese Designated as Equivalent to Foreign Upper Secondary Schools in Japan”
<https://www.mext.go.jp/en/policy/education/highered/title02/detail02/sdetail02/1395424.html>
- *2 Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools indicate elementary, junior high, and high schools based on School Education Act of Japan and overseas Japanese schools approved by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

6. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to section 5. “Eligibility” above, an applicant must also satisfy the following requirements.

1. An applicant must be able to take the Standardized Examination administered in each country (P. 10), SAT, ACT, or Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students (EJU), and submit the score report of any of these examinations.

If the official score report of the Standardized Examination administered in each country cannot be issued or submitted within the application period, applicants may instead submit the results of the mock examination (Predicted Grades) for the said standardized examination.

Applicants who desire to enroll in the Faculty of Science and Engineering must take “Mathematics” in the Standardized Examination administered in each country. Applicants who plan to submit the EJU score report must take the specific subjects; for the applicants to the Faculty of Science and Engineering must take “Mathematics II” and for others must take “Japan and the World” and “Mathematics I.”

2. Applicants must acquire Japanese language proficiency equivalent to level A1 of the "Common Japanese Framework of Reference for Languages " (e.g., JLPT N5 or above)

Applicants must submit a Certificate of Results or a Score Report for one of the following examinations:

JLPT, BJT, J.TEST, NAT-TEST, STBJ, TOPJ, J-cert, JLCT, PJC Bridge, JPT, JOT, S-JEP (formerly known as JPET)

*For specific score details, please refer to the website below.

10. FINANCIAL SUPPORT SYSTEM

○During the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program period

Soka University Japan Studies Center Scholarship for International Students

By the time of the application to the International Students Admission, applicants can also apply for the tuition fee reduction scholarship.

Required documents :

- Application form for Tuition Fee Reduction Scholarship
- Proof of household income referred to January to December 2025 (or the most recent one-year period available) of all financial supporters
- Family relationship certificate of the household supporter

※In principle, household income refers to those of the father and mother.

※In case there was a job change in 2025 please submit also the proof of income referred to the previous job.

※“Income” refers to the amount that is received before tax deductions are taken out.

※In case there is no income, please submit an officially certified “Certificate of no income”.

※If the applicant is unable to provide documents to prove the household income, they will not be eligible to apply for ‘Soka University Japan Studies Center Scholarship for International Students’.

The results of the scholarship will be notified simultaneously with the admission announcement.

The conditions and ratio of tuition fee reduction are as follows.

| Household annual income criteria | Reduction ratio |
|----------------------------------|-----------------|
| Below 10,000,000 JPY             | 50% reduction   |
| 10,000,000 JPY or more           | No reduction    |

- Appendix 1 (P. 9) shows the ‘Fees for Year 1’ required for students granted tuition fee reduction.

○After entering an Undergraduate Program (The details will be provided during the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program)

① Soka University Makiguchi Foundation for Education Tuition Fee Reduction Scholarship for Undergraduate International Students

This tuition fee reduction scholarship is awarded based on the annual household income. The results of the tuition fee reduction scholarship will be notified simultaneously with the admission announcement.

The conditions and ratio of tuition fee reduction are as follows.

| Household annual income criteria | Reduction ratio |
|----------------------------------|-----------------|
| Below 8,000,000 JPY              | 50% reduction   |
| 8,000,000 JPY or more            | No reduction    |

Application period: At the end of January 2028 near the completion of the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program

Required documents: “Application for Tuition Fee Reduction,” “Proof of household income referred to January to December 2026 (or the most recent one-year period available) of all financial supporters,” “Family relationship certificate of the household supporter”

- In principle, household income refers to those of the father and mother.

- After enrollment, it requires to apply every year. If the cumulative GPA is below 2.0 (the maximum GPA is 4.0), or if the number of credits earned per semester is below 15 credits, the tuition fee reduction will not be granted for the subsequent year.

- If an applicant has siblings enrolled in an undergraduate program at the same time, 1,800,000 JPY will be deducted from the household annual income for each sibling. If an applicant has siblings enrolled in the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program at the same time, 1,470,000 JPY will be deducted for each sibling.

- Appendix 2 (P. 9) shows the ‘Fees for Year 1’ required for students granted tuition fee reduction.

② Soka University Undergraduate International Student Designated Country Grant

This scholarship is awarded to undergraduate students who meet the qualification requirements set by the university with the purpose of providing the opportunity to study at our university. It is awarded to those who have been accepted into the undergraduate program. Applicants can apply for the “Soka University Undergraduate International Student Designated Country Grant” at the end of January 2028 near the completion of the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program.
